LOCAL FLOAT IS AWARDED SECOND PRIZE

South San Francisco Is Accorded Recognition By Judges of Parade

Second prize in the Industrial Section in the big Diamond Jubilee parade on Saturday night. This was the award made in connection with South San Francisco's splendid float proclaiming to the hundreds of thousands that lined the route of the big pageant that South San Francisco was a big factor in the industrial activities of the Golden State.

The float could hardly be designated as a thing of beauty, but when it came to exemplifying "All Business" and creating finished products from raw materials, the South San Francisco float was 100 per cent perfect. For not even the noise attendant to a busy manufacturing center was overlooked, and one heard the float long before it passed in review.

The award emblematic of the second prize consists of a neat golden hued silk banner mounted on an appropriate staff and embellished with silver plated ornaments. The wording on the banner is as follows: "Monogram, C. D. J. (California Diamond Jubilee) 1850-1925. San Francisco, Industrial Unit."

To those having the details in charge much credit is due, for South San Francisco's float was distinctive. Visitors from other sections of the state and nation, while being impressed with beautiful floats, pleasing to the eye and depicting the fact that the particular community represented was either an exquisite garden spot, a splendid fruit district, a busy farming community, an ideal home district, a noted historical arche in the progress of California, were not allowed even the shadow of a doubt when the South San Francisco float passed before them, as to this city being an industrial center that each year adds to the material wealth of California, the Golden State.

A place where rail and water meet, and naturally, being a busy industrial center, possessing commercial activities and homes in keeping with such a community.

Narrow Escape In Accident

Four novitiates on their way to the seminary at Menlo Park on Wednesday night had a narrow escape from death when the car in which they were riding collided with a large truck driven by Tony Gogna in the vicinity of Baden, on the State Highway.

Both the truck and the lighter machine were badly wrecked and the driver of the truck suffered painful injuries. The four occupants of the lighter car, aside from a severe shaking up, suffered no ill effects of the close call. The slippery condition of the pavement caused the accident.

Deputy Sheriff Callaghan, who was driving by in his car at the time of the accident, took the four students to Menlo Park. The driver of the truck was taken to San Francisco, where he resides.

SAN BRUNO BANK IS REPORTED SOLD

The California Bank of San Mateo County at San Bruno, started several years ago by Hardin Hatch, and with many prominent local citizens included in the list of stockholders, according to well founded rumors, has been sold to the holding corporation of the Bank of Italy. The deal, rumor has it, has been pending for some time.

Judge Rapsey Elected

At the regular meeting of the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday night, with President George Clark presiding, Recorder R. A. Rapsey was unanimously elected secretary, following the resignation of Secretary Edmund Flynn. Secretary Flynn resigned owing to the fact that his business venture in Burlingame has necessitated his removal to that San Mateo County metropolis. The San Bruno Chamber of Commerce intends to put on an active membership drive in the near future.

Local Air Port Is Progressing

Matters in connection with the South San Francisco airport and aviation field are progressing in a gratifying manner and already their is considerable activity in that district.

Naturally, until the government receives all reports, etc., there will be nothing definite from the actual airport standpoint.

County Engineer George A. Kneese has prepared a profile map of the proposed aviation field to be forwarded to the government. More and more are experienced aviators sounding the praise of the local site for an airport. The large field is being placed in excellent condition, while the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, civic officials and progressive citizens are co-operating, each in their own way, to further the best interests of this important undertaking.

Freshmen Initiation

The Freshmen initiation will be held on the evening of Friday, September 25, at 7:45. The committees in charge are planning something a bit different this year to make it less tiresome to spectators and more exciting to the participants. About fifty Freshmen, both low and high, a half dozen upper classmen who are new in the school, and six teachers will "go through the mill."

After the initiation proper there will be a general entertainment—perhaps the glee club and orchestra will render numbers, and no doubt there will be some vaudeville stunts.

A general invitation is hereby extended to the parents and friends to attend the affair next Friday night. Students of the seventh and eighth grades are asked not to attend this particular event, on account of the fact that they expect some day to go through the mill, and therefore ought not to see too much beforehand.

Football Team Elects Captain

Jean Dotson, local football star, was elected captain of the 1925 football team last Tuesday. Jean has been on the team for the last three years and is an exceptionally good player. Under Jean's guidance the team expects to exceed all expectations.

Hockey Practice

Twenty-five girls turned out for the first hockey practice this year. Coach Clifford expects to turn out a good team—if the girls will do their part and practice. It takes more than eleven girls to make a good hockey team. We must have substitutes and the team must have girls to practice with. If you have not come out for practice, do so now for your own good as well as the school's.

Girls' Basketball

Coach Clifford announced that there will be A and B teams in girls' basketball this year.

All girls—whether you are lower classmen or not—are requested to come out for practice on Tuesdays and Thursdays. If you can't play basketball—come out and learn how.

Football Rally

On September 4 the boys of the high school had a football rally in the assembly hall. Mr. Hunter, the football coach, made a plea for more men out for practice. He pointed out that if a boy didn't make the team this year, he will gain experience which will assist him in making the team next year.

5, 10, 15c STORE TO OPEN HERE TOMORROW

The 5, 10 and 15 cent store on Grand avenue, next to the postoffice, will be open for business tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. It has been fitted up with the most modern and attractive fixtures and everything is arranged in such a manner as to give the public first class service. The store is finished in red, as this gives a most satisfactory background for display purposes.

This new store is modern in every way and its opening will mark another step in the advancement of this city. The public is invited to visit the store, which will be open from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. on Saturday and from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m. on other days.

John Exner, who has for many years been associated in this line of business, will be the local manager.

Meet in Oakland

Teachers from San Mateo County are expected to attend the annual institute of the California Teachers' Association, which will be held in Oakland December 14 to 17, while one of the meetings will be held in San Francisco. It is expected that over seven thousand teachers will be in attendance.

Richfield Oil Plant Progressing

The Richfield oil plant in South San Francisco is rapidly looming up as the various structures near completion. This plant is just another one of South San Francisco's valuable assets and will add very materially to the payroll of the Industrial City.

Prominent Speaker At Church Tonight

Tonight the citizens of South San Francisco and district will have an opportunity to hear the eminent and widely known orator, Dr. J. L. Gordon, at the St. Paul's Community Church (Methodist Episcopal). That a large attendance will be recorded is a foregone conclusion, for this brilliant speaker never fails to draw large audiences.

In addition to the lecture, the Ladies' Aid of the church is giving a supper in the assembly room and the price of admission covers both items. Supper will be served promptly at 6:30 o'clock and Dr. Gordon will start his discourse promptly at 8 o'clock.

The admission has been set at $2.50, with the price for the lecture alone at $1.00.

The money derived will be placed in the building fund of the church. Dr. Gordon, who is pastor of the First Congregational Church in San Francisco, is assisting the local building fund and deserves the heartfelt thanks of the entire community. As for the supper, the fact that it is in charge of the very capable ladies of the church is sufficient to stamp its quality, and also its quantity.

County Firemen Hold Meeting

The San Bruno fire house on Tuesday night was the scene of another well attended meeting of the Associated Firemen of San Mateo County, with President Ross presiding. Delegates from the various fire companies in the county attended and some interesting addresses were given.

Captain Mulligan, the campaign manager for the San Francisco fire company's organization, was the principal speaker of the evening.

At the conclusion of the business session the San Bruno firemen acted as hosts to the visiting delegates and a tasty spread was provided, intermingled with the general spirit of good fellowship, which always prevails at these functions when the firemen of the county assemble.

It is planned to have the next regular monthly meeting of the association in Burlingame on October 29, when the San Francisco fire department band will be in attendance and a special program will be arranged.

New Petition Next Week

An entirely new recall petition naming the chief executive and the two members of the board of South San Francisco designated in the former petition will be circulated next week, according to authentic information imparted this week. The same charges incorporated in the original petition, it is stated, will be included in the new petition.

Board Meets on Monday

The regular meeting of the board of trustees of South San Francisco took place on Monday night and it is possible that the bond election issue will be discussed. It is understood that at least the majority of the board are in favor of the bond issue, as recommended by the executive committee of the citizens' committee.

View of Friendship

I have never given much encouragement to friendship; I have done little for my friends, and they have done little for me. One of the ideas which I have so often to cope with is that friendship, as it is generally understood, is an injustice and a blunder, which only allows you to distinguish the good qualities of a single person and blinds you to those of others who are perhaps more deserving of your sympathy.—Ernest Renan.

FUNDS APPORTIONED TO COUNTY SCHOOLS

There will be an examination on the Constitution September 26 at 9:30 o'clock in the intermediate school of Redwood City, directed by the county board of education.

Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools, has apportioned the following amounts to the schools of San Mateo County:

To the elementary schools.....$171,500

To the high schools.....20,600

To the junior college.....20,100

Moved to New Location

The Corradetti Hemstitching Shop, which in the past has been located at 421 Grand Avenue, has recently moved to Room 4, 252 Grand Avenue.

They will handle all kinds of notions and embroidery at special bargain prices.

ASSOCIATION'S HOME NEARS COMPLETION

Construction work on the new San Francisco general office headquarters of the California State Automobile Association is proceeding rapidly and the building is expected to be ready for occupancy during the first week in November, according to an announcement made yesterday.

At the present time the plasterers are completing their work on the interior and by the end of September the exterior work will be finished. Another three or four weeks will be required for the installation of interior woodwork, counters and the completion of all details.

The association's new headquarters building, which is located on Van Ness Avenue at Hayes Street, will provide facilities for carrying on the organization's service and business activities that will greatly increase the efficiency of the office personnel and improve the character of service to members and the motoring public.

The building is being constructed on property owned by the automobile association and has been financed over a period of years without any increase in the organization's membership dues or its services to the motoring public.

CYCLIST IS INJURED AT SAN BRUNO

Joseph Griduna, residing at the home of Mr. Perry in San Bruno, was seriously injured on Wednesday morning when he was run down by a south-bound interurban car at San Bruno crossing.

Griduna, who is employed in South San Francisco, was en route to work on a bicycle at the time the accident occurred.

According to witnesses, the safety gates at the crossing had been lowered and the unfortunate man rode under them.

He was rushed to the South San Francisco hospital, where it was first thought his injuries would prove fatal. A closer examination, however, developed the fact that he had a good chance for recovery unless complications set in.

Later he was removed to the Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo, where just before press time it was stated that he was progressing towards recovery as well as could be expected.

AMALGAMATION IS SUGGESTED

At the regular meeting of the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday night the matter of Lomita Park amalgamating with San Bruno was suggested. It was pointed out that such amalgamation would be of mutual benefit to both communities.

One feature, it was suggested, would be the better possibility of securing a postal mail carrier service. Also it was pointed out that Lomita Park cannot hope to expand in territory with San Bruno on the north and Millbrae on the south. The latter district, it is conceded, will eventually be annexed to greater Burlingame.

Lomita Park, while at present an ideal and very progressive residential district, is handicapped by lack of paved streets. The street situation in Lomita Park has been in litigation for some time.

Bond Election Issue Is Recommended By Executive Committee

Plan Conclave Next Month

California and the entire West will receive national recognition in the matter of road building activities when the All-Western Road Show opens its gates to ten thousand visitors from every section of the country who are expected to make San Francisco their mecca during the week of November 9, according to William Tudor, manager of the good roads bureau of the California State Automobile Association.

From every section of the West, everyone connected in any capacity with the road building industry is expected to visit San Francisco during the road show, which will be the largest event of its kind ever held west of Chicago, the association's good roads bureau manager declared. Delegations of machinery men and highway builders are also expected from many eastern points and several thousand actual builders of roads, streets, bridges, dams and allied industries will attend their respective conventions.

Every day in the week beginning November 12 will be taken up with conventions of various road building groups and organizations, drawing from the Rocky Mountain, the Pacific Northwest and the Coast states.

The chapters of the Associated General Contractors from Denver, Salt Lake, Portland, Seattle, Spokane, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Phoenix will send practically their entire membership for Contractors' Day, November 12. Their program committee has already met in San Francisco and drawn up a tentative program.

The Western Association of State Highway Officials will hold its annual convention on Monday, November 9. The Nevada Association of County Commissioners will adjourn after its annual meeting in Reno and take a special train to San Francisco to attend the program of county commissioners scheduled for Wednesday, the 11th. On this date thousands of other road commissioners from all parts of the West will assemble for the first time as road builders and listen to talks and discussions on a program arranged by their committee. This committee is headed by Stanley Abel, secretary of the California State Supervisors' Association.

Due to what is perhaps, more than anything else, a misconception of the real purpose of federal aid, political sentiment against its continuance has developed in certain eastern states, where it is complained that these states pay more in federal taxes than they receive back in federal appropriations.

This attitude is a matter of grave concern to those eleven western states in which is situated the greater part of the public domain. In these states the government owns millions upon millions of acres of mineral lands, national forests, Indian lands and national parks which are not taxable and from which the states derive no revenue. Yet these states, already struggling under the burden of providing adequate highway transportation for their purely local needs, are expected to construct splendid highways across these areas of untaxable public domain for the accommodation and pleasure of eastern tourists who are coming westward in ever-increasing numbers.

This public domain, which in several western states is greater than all New England in area, is as much the property of the citizens of Pennsylvania, or of any other eastern state, as it is the property of the citizens of the state in which it is located. Those eastern states in turn must realize that federal assistance in the construction of highways is an income to which the western states are entitled.

Continuance of federal aid means continuity in highway construction. Without it America may eventually have many unconnected state highway systems, but no great national system of roads vitally necessary from both a military and tourist standpoint. We are just beginning to close the gaps in the more important routes in most states. If the

The executive committee of the citizens' committee of one hundred selected to make a study of necessary civic improvements in South San Francisco, met in the city hall on Monday night, when the following recommendations were adopted to be submitted in a letter to each member of the general committee. A meeting of this general committee will be held in the near future. The recommendations:

"Your executive committee recommends that the following public improvements be undertaken and that the method of financing such improvements should be submitted to the people of the community in the form of a bond issue.

"Your executive committee further recommends that the citizens' committee submit this report, together with a copy of the minutes attached, to the board of trustees with the recommendation that said board of trustees consider submitting such recommended bond issue for public improvements to the citizens at the proper time.

"Following is the itemized program above recommended, together with itemized and total cost of same:

Complete improvement of civic center	21,125
Complete improvement of park near Martin School	7,290
Initial work on park site joining Acacia and Eucalyptus avenues	2,100
Initial work on 20-acre park site, including baseball park	12,750
Extending Orange Avenue, with a sub-grade and culvert protections	10,000

Grand total of improvements as suggested above.....$115,265

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

P. R. Thompson, Chairman.
It will be noted that the executive committee has eliminated the proposed civic auditorium for the present and which it is estimated will cost approximately $250,000.

New City Hall For Hillsborough

On Tuesday the plans for the new Hillsborough city hall were submitted to the board of trustees by Trustee H. W. Poett.

These plans include the remodeling of the county headquarters building of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, which was recently purchased by the city. The style of the remodeled building will be Spanish architecture.

To the left of the main building will be the jail, with the firehouse in the rear. The firehouse will be 30 by 20 feet and sleeping quarters will be provided for the men on the second floor.

City Engineer George A. Kneese was instructed to draw up a map of the city showing the water hydrants and the sewerage situation.

motoring public of America is to be adequately served, if the federal aid highway system, as it is now laid out, is to be completed, it is essential that the limited resources of the sparsely settled western commonwealths be supplemented with federal aid.

We have gone too far with this plan of national highways to lay down the pick and shovel now. The immediate problem of the West is to make the entire nation realize this fact.

As the champion of good roads development in the West, the California State Automobile Association will devote every legitimate effort to securing the continuation of federal appropriations for assistance in highway building, without which interstate highway construction cannot continue in most western states.

In making adequate presentation of the highway financing needs of the West to Congress, this organization will have the fullest co-operation and assistance of the American Automobile Association, the nation-wide organization of motorists with which it is affiliated, and the backing of approximately one million organized motorists, represented by that organization.

MORE POWER TO TAXPAYERS' ORGANIZATIONS

Twelve Pacific coast and western states have just concluded a taxpayers' conference at Portland, Oregon. This organization has been growing during several years past until in territory it today covers about one-half the area of the United States.

It is not a "paper" organization. It is composed of business men and women and farmers who understand that if local taxes are to be reduced, the average citizen must be brought to a realization of the fact that he pays all the tax bills. The day laborer may not get a tax statement from the county, state or nation, but the manufacturer, farmer and business man who does get such a tax statement and does pay taxes, add the amount as overhead of doing business to the price of every article he sells. The people must be made to understand this fact: There is no escape from taxation.

The reason that headway is being made in reducing the federal income tax is because every individual makes up his own tax statement and has evidence of exactly what he has to pay. Therefore, the movement for federal tax reduction has general support. Such is not the case, however, in cities, counties and states, because the individual never has a chance to see all of his tax bills on one statement.

The Western Taxpayers' League hopes to make the foregoing facts so clear that there will be a general demand for tax economy and reduction in city, county, state and municipal affairs as there has been and now is for a similar program in federal affairs.

Martin B. Madden, Illinois representative in Congress, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, and one of the leaders in the tax reduction program in Washington, addressed the Portland conference. He expressed great gratification at the organization of this taxpayers' association and said he hoped it would extend its activity until it included every state in the Union. He then added: "An enlightened public sentiment is the only thing that will cure our taxation evils. The man who does not make out an income tax schedule should not fool himself with the idea that he has escaped taxation. In the end, as a matter of fact, he probably pays most of the taxes."

He said taxpayers' organizations can be of great help in co-operating with the financial directors of our government and in helping them carry out a business program unhampered by political pressure and pork barrel methods which result from the demands of influential friends to satisfy constituents. The continual building up of political prestige at public expense accounts for most of our governmental troubles.

THE ADVERTISER GIVES BETTER VALUE

ADVERTISING AND TURNOVER—These two go together in good store management. And turnover may be defined as a policy of merchandising which says: "Sell at a small profit and carry as little merchandise over from year to year as possible."

This policy spells success for the merchant because it creates hundreds of satisfied customers. The merchant who follows it, advertises steadily. He must use advertising to move his merchandise off his shelves. And to get results from his advertising, he must offer the public better value and better lines of goods. Thus the policy of advertising and getting rapid turnover benefits you, the buyer, in two ways. It means lower prices and it means more seasonable merchandise. You are not sold stuff that has been hanging around on shelves from the year before. Does that not convince you that there is no common sense back of the old idea that the advertiser puts the cost of his advertising in the price of the merchandise he sells?

The merchant who does not advertise really has to charge more. He has his money tied up in old merchandise when he needs it for new stock, in order that his store may be up to date and secure the trade. He suffers a real loss in carrying old stuff over from year to year, and his loss has to be made up by the public. His store also becomes a back number in the district, and it can readily be seen in every community by the looks of a store, whether the merchant advertises or not. So patronize the merchant who advertises. It pays.

WHY NOT FIFTY-TWO WEEKS?

Fire Prevention Week this year is officially set for October 7 to 10. It is well to have a Fire Prevention Week each year, but when one considers that the yearly average of destruction of homes by fire approaches $66,000,000 in the United States, we are inclined to think that there should be fifty-two Fire Prevention Weeks each and every year.

Proud Moments

'Twas In the Early Days

(From Enterprise of 25 Years Ago)

J. G. Stout has commenced work on raising the Hynding building on Grand Avenue and putting a new foundation under the structure.

The tax rate in San Mateo County for the fiscal year outside of incorporated towns has been fixed at $1.84 on $100 assessed valuation by the supervisors. The addition of special school tax of 10 cents will be the total tax for this town and immediate vicinity.

Last week was a record breaker in the number of cattle slaughtered at the abattoirs of the Western Meat Company. Over one thousand head of beef cattle were killed and dressed between Monday morning and Saturday evening.

The official canvass shows the following result in San Mateo County: For McKinley and Roosevelt, 719; for Congress, E. F. Lound, 121; for state senator, James D. Byrnes, 794; for assemblyman, H. W. Brown, 1,572; for supervisor, First District, Julius Eikenkotter, 135.

On Monday, at Tanforan, one of the horses, Grayless, after running a good race and finishing third, dropped dead on the track.

The campaign for supervisor of First Township cost Julius Eikenkotter $65, as follows: Republican county committee, $25; printing and advertising, $30, and hall rent, $10.

Only one mail train a day out of this town and it goes in the dewy morn at 6:45 and in the wrong direction to be of much use.

Henry H. Taylor and Henry T. Scott, executors of the last will of Fanny Easton Taylor, have sold two acres belonging to the estate at Millbrae to W. D. K. Gibson for a right-of-way for the San Mateo electric railway. One of the covenants of the deed is that the company shall not charge more than twenty cents from Millbrae to San Francisco. H. H. Taylor has also disposed of one acre near Millbrae for the same purpose and under the same conditions.

On Wednesday George Kneese sailed from San Francisco on the German steamer, his destination being Germany. The steamer will touch at various ports on the way. Young George Kneese will make his home for a time with his father's brother in Germany and attend a German school.

On Saturday last Otto Burlington's meat wagon team ran away, smashing the wagon and scattering the contents along Grand Avenue. Every dog in town had a choice steak as a consequence.

The automobile ordinance adopted by the board of supervisors last Monday limits the speed of automobiles to fifteen miles an hour on open stretches of roads, but must be slowed up on nearing any vehicle.

COLMA, LAWNDAL

By
MISS SYLVIA HAUBRICH

After a vacation period of two months the Girls' Club of Colma entertained its members at a Jubilee supper on Friday evening, September 4 at the home of Mrs. James Henderson on Dunk and Washington streets. The tables were artistically decorated with the Jubilee colors. After the supper a business meeting took place. The girls are embroidering a 54-inch luncheon cloth, which they will dispose of, the proceeds to be used for renewal of subscriptions to popular magazines for the convalescent soldiers at the Base Hospital No. 24, at Palo Alto. Every year, since the Base Hospital was first established at Palo Alto, the Girls' Club of Colma has remembered the invalid boys with some need articles. The following members were present: Martha Frahm, Albina Garabaldi, Anna Kennedy, Josephine Lee, Lucille Lemon, Irene Moresco, Anna Schindler, Violet Ver Linden, Elsie Wilke, Pauline Shlnazy, Bertha Thiel, Fabian Ver Linden, Alice Thiel and Mrs. James Henderson.

A rehearsal of the Colma Community Minstrel show was held last Wednesday evening. Fine progress is being made by these minstrels and their coach, Mr. Scotty Butterworth, and everyone who has seen them, believe that this show will be bigger and better than ever. It will be presented in the Jefferson Union High School auditorium Saturday evening, October 10. There will also be several vaudeville acts on the program.

Members of El Carmelo parlors of Native Sons and Daughters had joint headquarters at the Whitcomb Hotel in San Francisco and enjoyed a delicious luncheon after the parade. Mrs. B. W. Haubrich was the only charter member of El Carmelo 181 present on this occasion.

Louise Nava spent several days of last week in Capitola and Santa Cruz.

Nearly every resident of Colma attended the Admission Day celebration in San Francisco last Wednesday.

El Carmelo parlors of Native Sons and Daughters were well represented in the Admission Day parade in San Francisco and received much applause and cheering along the line of march. First came the peppy drum corps, who done some fine drilling, and they were followed by members of the two parlors in Spanish costumes. Then came the Native Daughters drill team, who put on some fine exhibition drilling, in their colorful Spanish costumes. The banner of El Carmelo was carried by Miss Bernice Bertini and Jose Altieri. Bennie Haubrich and Richard Bauer carried the Bear and American flags and also wore Spanish costumes, as did little Miss Callan, who also carried a flag. The Daily City fire department made a fine showing with their old apparatus, followed by a splendid new chemical engine.

Silvio A. Landini is chairman of the committee in charge of the whist party to be given for the benefit of the Colma volunteer fire department in Jefferson Hall September 24. A large number of prizes have already been secured. Don't miss this affair.

Miss Lombardi of San Bruno attended the Jubilee dance at the Jefferson Union High School auditorium.

Frankie Silva of La Honda attended the Admission Day parade and visited local friends last Wednesday.

El Carmelo drum corps of Native Sons of the Golden West and El Carmelo drill team of Native Daughters of the Golden West marched through the streets of San Francisco and visited all headquarters of parlors of the order last Wednesday after the parade and concluded the evening at the dance on the boat chartered by Los Angeles parlors and lying in San Francisco harbor.

Many local people attended the spectacular electrical parade in San Francisco last Saturday evening.

A benefit bazaar will be given for the Colma volunteer fire department on the evenings of October 2 and 4. Be sure to attend and do your bit to help the fire laddies in this worthy cause, the purchase of new fire apparatus.

Ben Haubrich, Sr., of Mission Street marched in the September 9 parade in Spanish costume with Mission Parlor No. 38, Native Sons of the Golden

West, of which he is a charter member.

At the monthly whist party of Holy Angels' Church, in the parish hall, Thursday evening, September 17, the hope chest prepared by the Santana Club will be raffled.

Many local people attended the races at Tanforan Park last Sunday and Saturday afternoon.

Misses Jeanette Jones and Alcyone Clonsky recently attended a dance at the St. Francis Hotel.

M. Ratto and Henry Lorenz returned Saturday with three fine deer which they bagged in the vicinity of Poison Meadows and Sugar Pine.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Selmi and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tacchi motored to Boulder Creek, where they spent the week-end.

On Saturday evening, September 19, don't forget to attend the first dance to be sponsored by the Girls' Club of Maximus Church in the Daily City auditorium. Excellent jazz music has been engaged and you are assured an enjoyable evening.

The South San Francisco baseball club will sponsor a dance in Fraternal Hall, South San Francisco, Saturday evening, October 3. Many local people plan to attend.

The Colma volunteer fire department cordially invites you to attend their first social effort, a whist party to be held in Jefferson Hall, September 24, at 9 o'clock.

The St. Maximus Church will be officially opened for services next Sunday, September 20. Mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock by Rev. J. J. Cullen of San Francisco. Mass at 10 o'clock will be solemn high mass and will be sung by the choir of Sacred Heart Church of San Francisco.

The Jubilee dance given at the Jefferson Union High School auditorium recently was such a success that the student body was enabled to pay $100 on the baby grand piano. This money was derived from the proceeds of the dance.

Don't miss the big whist party to be given by El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West, in Masonic Hall, Daily City, Wednesday evening, September 16. Mrs. Ruby O'Connor is in charge of this affair and will be assisted by members of the drill team.

FEDERATION OF
P. T. A. MEET

Reverend Harvey Miller of the Alameda Congregational Church will be the speaker of the afternoon. Short talks by the presidents of associations will be featured.

Machines will leave the San Mateo branch of the high school at 9:30. Those having machines to use for the day and members expecting to attend are requested to notify Mrs. A. W. Colby, telephone Burlingame 948-W. Luncheon will be served at Butano, the country home of Mrs. Williams, president of the Pescadero association. ## PERHAPS

A German cook who loved to sleep in the morning warned the scolding mistress of her intention to leave for America.
"Over there," she said, "the sun rises much later, and when it is already midday here it barely begins to dawn in America! I shall be able to sleep a couple of hours longer."—London Answers.

IMPOSSIBILITY

"The minister suggests," remarked the flapper's mother mildly, "that you girls give as much time to religion each day as you do to primping and pleasure."
"How absurd!" exclaimed the flapper scornfully. "Surely a man of his education should know that there aren't 48 hours in a day."—American Legion Weekly.

A NEW VERSION

Editor—You can't get by with that joke. That's an old Pat and Mike wheeze.

Jokesmith—But don't you see how I've improved it? I've changed the names from Pat and Mike to Martin Luther and Oliver Cromwell.

Sympathetic

I'm fond of my dentist.
He's never a grouch;
And when he has hurt me
He always says, "Ouch."

'S a Fact

"The last speaker," said the chairman of the Health Congress, "is a striking example of the efficacy of the doctrines he so eloquently advocates. Hale and hearty at eighty years of age, he could tire out many a man younger than himself."
A voice from the audience: "He did."—Tit-Bits.

His Choice

He had married a very small woman, and was being chaffed about it at the club.
"Now look here, you fellows," he said. "It's all very well laughing about this, but I always base my conduct on certain definite principles. One of them is: given a choice of evils, always choose the lesser."—Tit-Bits.

Tu Quoque

Golf Widow—My husband accused me of doing nothing but chase around to afternoon teas.
Friend—What did you say?
Golf Widow—I reminded him that that was how he spent his own afternoons, chasing from one tee to another.

Misprint

The reporter was interviewing a railroad man's heir.
"Did you grandfather really make that statement about the public?" asked the newspaper man.
"No, I don't think so. It was a misprint, most likely. The old man probably said, 'The Public Be Jammed.'"

Ranching is a term derived from the Spanish-American word rancho, originally meaning a place where herdsmen eat and sleep, but gradually extended to mean a grazing farm.

SAN BRUNO LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mr. W. S. White of Los Gatos has been spending the Jubilee week visiting his son in Fifth Addition.

Mrs. Harold Childs has been on the sick list. She is, however, much improved and able to be at her work again.

The Y. M. I. have a tennis tournament on and you will find all young men each day and evening busily practicing.

J. P. Earp of Third Addition had the misfortune to get his right foot broken while at his work. He is now hobbling around on crutches.

Mrs. Chris Fegan, we are sorry to say, is not so well these days. While she is able to be up and about, she is suffering, nevertheless, with neuritis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hart entertained a number of their young friends at their home on Taylor Avenue last week. Cards, music and dancing and a wonderful spread of refreshments caused the evening to pass only too quickly.

Mrs. Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grady, is visiting with her parents this week. Her husband will join her by the end of the week and they will return to their home in Los Angeles together next week.

The many friends of Mrs. Joseph Cunningham will indeed be sorry to learn that this popular lady is ill in the Franklin Hospital in San Francisco, having undergone an operation for appendicitis. At last reports she is doing very nicely and it is hoped she will soon be able to be brought to her home.

The ladies of the regular Wednesday Whist Club were entertained by Mrs. Janette Holms in her new home in the Third Addition this week. A very delightful afternoon was spent. A dainty luncheon was served, the table being beautifully decorated. Later whist was enjoyed. Mrs. Johnson of San Francisco was the winner of the first prize, Mrs. Fegan winning the consolation. Mrs. Fegan also won the raffle.

Mr. Herman Zoberist, old time resident of Huntington Park, has rented his home in that section and will live in San Francisco for the present.

The Phil Clarks of El Camino Real are on their vacation. Cards received from them this week say they are in Sacramento and intend to visit in several cities in the San Joaquin Valley before returning home.

Ernest Bohm returns with his bride of a few weeks and will visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bohm, of El Camino Real on Sunday. We are in hopes that the young couple will make their home in San Bruno. Mrs. Ernest Bohm, nee Elsie Chaney, was a former resident of San Bruno, and her many friends will be glad to welcome and congratulate her.

Mrs. Julia Comp (nee Julia Drescher) entertained a number of friends in her pretty home last Friday. Needless to say a most pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Jack Dixon of Mastick Avenue has as her house guest her niece, Mrs. Edward Curl, and her little daughter, Beverly Adair, of Los Angeles. Mrs. Curl intends to remain a couple of months and before she leaves for her home in the south will visit her mother in Sacramento.

Dr. and Mrs. Bohm had as their guests last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William Leverage of Burlingame. Mrs. Leverage is the doctor's daughter.

Edgemont P. T. A.

The regular meeting of the Edgemont P. T. A. was held Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance. It was decided to change the regular meeting day to the first Friday of the month instead of the third Tuesday. We will have a picture show on Friday, September 25, both afternoon and evening. Adults 25 cents and children 10 cents, the proceeds to help buy swings for the little tots and a handball court for the older children. After the meeting tea was served by Mrs. Lindsey's cooking class.

Complete Disarmament

Hard to Bring About

There is nothing new under the sun; and even anti-weapon laws have been tried before—in 1382, for instance. A greedy and witless king of France, Charles VI, attempted to reimpose on the people of Paris what would now be called a sales tax. The people of Paris arose in their might—armed, as it happened, with mallets. The insurrection was quickly put down by the disciplined forces; but, to prevent further troubles of the kind, a rigorous disarmament law was passed and very strictly enforced. Paris was regarded as the pivot of the kingdom; it must not be split by internal fighting; and obviously—to the feeble mind of Charles VI—fighting would be absolutely prevented by the removal of the inhabitants' weapons.

Time passed, about 30 years. A generation of Parisians arose which knew not weapons. Then under circumstances it is not necessary to detail, a certain duke of Burgundy wished to have command of the city. It was politically impossible for him to take it by force of arms; but it was possible, as it would be nowadays, for him to engineer the election of a friend of his to the captaincy of the city. Had all the inhabitants been armed, this move would have been without effect; a captain can only command; and to order the whole body of the citizenry to fight against its own interests would be useless.

But, under the circumstances, the count de St. Pol's course was clear. One class of citizens had of necessity been exempted from the disarmament process—the butchers. The butchers had knives, axes and bludgeons galore—just as after modern disarmament plumbers would still have lots of lead pipe, and miners plenty of dynamite. And one class of citizens can usually be induced to betray the other classes for its own benefit.

So the duke of Burgundy controlled Paris, much against the desire of the Parisians at large, by means of a Parisian militia.

The powerful, but unarmed, university; and the indignant, but weaponless, population, protested violently. But it has not been recorded anywhere that their protests ever did them any good.—F. R. Buckley in Adventure Magazine.

Appeals to Old and Young

Florida has two new assets to add to its bid for popularity. First, the California earthquake. Second, a pirate ship, remarks Grove Patterson in the Columbus Dispatch.

An old pirate ship was discovered twelve feet underground in Sarasota, Fla. It stirs the blood of youth, if you have any. Do childish adventures of the mind still play about pirate ships? They used to. A boy who never wanted to be a pirate probably never wanted to do anything. It is as inevitable as want to sail on a pirate ship as it is to want to be conductor on a train. If they find any more pirate ships in Florida we'll all get the fever.

Open Mental Windows

When the queen of Sheba asked Solomon to determine the natural and artificial flowers she gave him, he opened the windows to let in the bees. There would be less ignorance, superstition, and prejudice in this world if people would open their mental windows.—Grit.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CARELESSNESS ON THE ROAD IN FULL SWING

Elimination of carelessness in the operation of motor vehicles and carelessness in the use of streets and highways by pedestrians and school children is the object of a campaign now being carried on by the women of the state in co-operation with the recently organized California Public Safety Conference.

Carelessness by automobile operators, pedestrians and children claimed 1,352 lives in California in 1924 and was responsible for injuries to approximately 40,000 men, women and children, according to figures announced by the public safety department of the California State Automobile Association, one of the five organizations sponsoring the public safety conference.

"S O S"—the distress call of the disabled ship at sea—will be translated into a new slogan to eliminate carelessness in the use of California's streets and highways in a campaign that is to be carried on from now until December 15. As defined during this period by radio, press, billboard and poster, "S O S" will mean "Safety or Sorrow."

Through co-ordination of effort in the California Public Safety Conference, the State Automobile Association, the Automobile Club of Southern California, the California Development Association, the division of motor vehicles and the California Peace Officers' Association will earnestly seek to reduce the death and accident toll in California from now until December 15.

During the period from September 1 to December 15, last year, 426 men, women and children were fatally injured on the streets and highways of California. The number of lives saved in comparison with this total from now until the end of the present campaign will be presented to the state of California through its governor on Christmas Eve.

TRIP EMPHASIZES VALUE OF HIGHWAYS ACROSS CONTINENT

Better recognition by the American public of the national value of the great transcontinental motor highways will be one of the lasting benefits of the recent transcontinental motor trip undertaken by President Thomas P. Henry and General Manager Ernest N. Smith of the American Automobile Association, according to sentiments expressed by high government officials in letters

AUTOMOBILE NEWS

California Highway Commission Notes

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 18.—Requests and suggestions of the boards of supervisors of the several counties are given careful consideration by the California state highway commission and are complied with whenever possible, State Highway Engineer R. M. Morton told a gathering of county officials on Supervisors' Day at the state fair. The supervisors, he said, are the official spokesmen of the counties regarding highway matters and through them the commission has direct contact with the people.

The mutual confidence existing between the commission and the fifty-eight county boards, the state engineer suggested, has resulted in numerous co-operative projects for construction and maintenance of sections of the state highway system, where local as well as state traffic is to be benefited. He expressed the hope that present friendly relations may be continued.

State Law Overlooked by Counties

"Co-operation also may be extended to local projects," continued Mr. Morton. "Cities and counties of the state generally have overlooked provisions of the state law authorizing the commission to assist in planning local street and road improvements by making surveys or by acting as consulting engineer on construction projects."

"When requested to do so, the commission will gladly assist local communities in solving engineering problems of this nature. There is a great field here for co-operative effort in the interest of the public."

Laboratory Gets Facts

"The counties are urged to avail themselves of information compiled by the commission's testing and research laboratory. We are constantly learning new facts about road building in California, which is yours for the asking. Just now we are undertaking the examination of five thousand culverts in all parts of the state to determine the last qualities of various types and brands under varying conditions of soil and climate."

"Recently completed research work includes studies of concrete curing, which may make advisable cutting in half the curing time; studies of soils and their fitness as sub-bases for pavements; effect of alkali on concrete and prevention methods, and other important investigations which, it is hoped, should enable the counties to build better highways."

Maintenance Begins January 1

"The three bond acts provided for maintenance by the state only after construction is completed. We realize now that completion of the system is years ahead. A change in the law to provide for maintenance of all traversable state highways, was recommended in our last biennial report and approved by the legislature and the governor. Plans are now being made for undertaking state maintenance next January, when we will begin taking over the uncompleted state highways."

brought to California by A. A. A. officials.

Two members of President Coolidge's cabinet pointed out that this trip would particularly emphasize for the American people the value of knowing their own western country through seeing it by automobile and the necessity of continuing interstate highway building until the tie between the different sections of the country shall have been made inseparable by the completion of the federal aid highway system.

In a letter which Smith and Henry carried across the continent to W. T. Sessom, president of the California State Automobile Association, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover pointed out that the trip of the A. A. A. officials will bring home to thousands of American motorists in a unique way the fact that both coasts are linked together by a great national system of highways.

"This trip is a challenge to all Americans who ought to know their western country in the intimate way that results from a motor tour," Secretary Hoover said. "The Lincoln Highway, together with your own Victory Highway, constitute a great mid-continent trail which will be increasingly used as a result of such demonstrations as the American Automobile Association are giving of its usefulness to the Nation, and these are only two of the great transcontinental highways that must eventually be completed in the interests of the whole nation."

In a letter which Smith and Henry presented to Harvey M. Toy, chairman of the California highway commission, Secretary of Agriculture William M. Jardine pointed out the wonderful influence highway transportation has had upon the economic and social development not only of the West, but of the whole of the United States.

The Ultimate Topic

An Accomplished Querist

Mrs. A.—Well, how did you enjoy your first experience as a juror?
Mrs. B.—I didn't enjoy it at all. It was simply agony to have to sit there dumb and not be able to show the prosecuting attorney a few tricks in cross-examining a fool man.

Long Preparation

Jail Visitor (speaking through bars)—Poor fellow! You must find it hard to be caged up this way.

Prisoner—Oh, it isn't so bad. You see, I was a bank teller before I came here and got used to being in a cage.

Sorry for Burglar

UNCLE EZRA

I always feels sort of sorry for city folks. They can't help it.

Some folks don't care nothin' for sports that no one don't git hurt at.

Ed Briggs' boy Josh says he's a live wire, but Cousin Marthy says he's shockin'.

Deke Spriggins says the better the roads is the faster their auto speeders gives us the go-by.

Aunt Hannah Marlar says the golden chariot won't need no radiator with water into it to keep it cool.

Ev'ry time my ears is touched by frost I wonder why some fellers is so anxious to git to the North pole.

Not havin' nothin' else to do, the village reform society is thinkin' of tryin' to put down them cross-word puzzles.

Dan Cupid is havin' his troubles nowdays. Them there flappers don't stand still long enough for him to shoot 'em.

Buildin' boom is still goin' on. Cy Green put up a new chicken coop an' Eb Titter is rumored to be thinkin' of roovin' his barn.—La Monte Waldron, in Chicago American.

GEORGIA NUGGETS

The biggest-mouthed fish in the world is the fisherman that expects somebody to believe his stories.

Seeing the scenery in a lizzie at 40 miles per hour is not our idea of an ideal outing even on paved roads.

WITH A POINT

Love, like ice, is awfully slippery and it soon thaws.

The fat widow's chances for marrying again are slim.

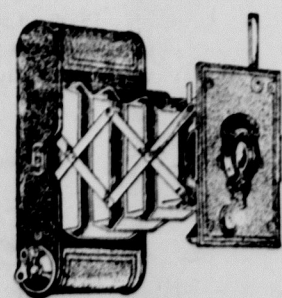

A bargain is a bargain—even if the other woman gets it.

Some people spend too much of their time in nursing animosity.

No true woman ever begins to grow old until after her marriage.

It's easy for a woman to fool a man who thinks he can't be fooled.

How Bank Account Grew

Just before the Civil war ex-Senator Chauncey M. Depew, then a young man starting to carve out his fortune, deposited $100 in a savings bank at Peekskill, N. Y., his home. That was the very first $100 he earned. He thought about the money a good many times and more than once was sorely tempted when pressed for funds to draw it out, but he managed to get along without it.

Later he became increasingly prosperous and public and private affairs so occupied his time that he finally forgot all about his first deposit. Not long ago he visited the Peekskill bank and an official reminded him of it. The account was still on the bank's books and the original $100 had grown to $800.—Pathfinder Magazine.

How to Keep Plants

If you must leave home for a few days, do not take the trouble to carry the plants, the rubber and other plants into a neighbor's house to be cared for. Indeed you can leave them right at home and not worry about them at all.

Just collect as many common bricks as you have plants. Set these in the tubs and cover with water, but be sure the stopper is in place. Put each plant on a brick. The bricks will absorb the water in the tubs and the plants will draw up all the moisture they require, provided you have removed the saucers.

The plants will thrive and do nicely for many days under these conditions.

How Maxim Silencer Works

The National Rifle association says that a Maxim silencer works on the same principle as an auto muffler. The tube is screwed on the muzzle of the gun. This tube consists of a series of baffles that cause the gases to issue slowly instead of with a sudden rush. It is this rush of powdered gas from the muzzle of the gun which creates a vacuum, causing the report when discharged.

How Trees Grow

A popular belief seems to be that a scar on a tree trunk "grows upward with the tree." Such, of course, is not the case, says Nature Magazine. A blaze mark struck shoulder high by a trapper a hundred years ago will still be shoulder high today. A tree expands in girth with the seasons, but greater height is attained only by new growth at the top.

How to Care for Trees

Borers prefer weakened fruit and shade trees. To prevent injury by this class of insects, keep the trees strong and vigorous. Dead and dying trees should be cut down and burned.

The Finished Job Is The Only Standard By Which Achievement Is Measured

Pioneer for Arbor Day

Nebraska was the pioneer state in the Arbor day movement. New York took up the idea on April 30, 1888, and set apart the Friday following the first day of May for the planting of trees.

Human Whale

A Frenchman at Marseilles, who has a normal stomach, but is able to dilate it at will, can swallow four quarts of water and eject it like a whale in a jet seven feet high.

One Editor's View

Somewhat or other we can't understand why it has been the desire of most of the scientific men for the past 1500 years to discover that old North pole. As we get it we imagine it would not be a very swell place to live in and unless a fellow was "buggy" to go somewhere we imagine that he would have just as much fun at the equator anyway.—Osborn Enterprise.
